The Sunday Akinsola Foundation for widows & orphans in Nigeria had Mother's Day celebrations at both locations that brought the widows much joy. They received gifts of cooking oil, homemade dishwashing detergent, & dress fabric along with refreshments. The program included worship, prayer, & a message from Proverb 31 how to be godly women. The Father's Day service will have emphasis on the Heavenly Father & how to be content without a husband & to trust Him..

Although there is a long waiting list of widows wanting to join the ministry, the leadership thinks it best to focus on disciplining & helping mature spiritually those already in the ministry.

The Lord used the Akinsola Foundation to change the direction in Solomon's life, the son of one of the widows who was blind since birth. At the age of 9 or 10, when he would have become a beggar, the ministry intervened & became his sponsor. They purchased a Braille typewriter & a cane, so he was able to go to an elementary school for the blind. Now he's in a regular high school that has blind teachers. The widows' ministry has continued to help him in other ways such as school lunch money. This fall he'll be a rising sophomore with hopes of going to college. Solomon reads & writes well & has spoken at the meetings of his gratitude.

Prayer points from Abiodun: * A bus needed that would hold about 20 people

* 2 canopies to have a crusade at each location (4 total)

* Start construction in Kajola for a 2-story structure...to do surveying & architectural plans drawn up for City approval. Estimated cost 9,000 for that along with bricks & labor to construct first floor.
