FROM THE PRAYER CLOSET (by Edith Jackson – April 2019 MOBC Newsletter)

Quoting David Wilkerson, “God is bound to His Word.” It’s called “binding precedent.” This is where a legal decision made in the past becomes an authorization rule for similar cases in the future. “Chew” on that for a while, and know God is the same yesterday, today, and tomorrow. (Hebrews 13:8)

Is it safe for us to say...pour over the Word to find Faith to pray today? I say Yes and Amen!

The Sunday Akinsola Foundation for Widows & Orphans ministry in Nigeria –

For March meeting at Ogbomoso the topic was “He Is Risen,” & the Scripture reference Matthew 28:1-20. The ladies watched a movie of Jesus & the crucifixion & resurrection. They had a snack of cookies & water & took home black-eyed peas, Jiffy mix (Cassava) & were given bus fare.

There wasn’t a March meeting in Kajola but is scheduled for April 2nd with the same theme “He Is Risen.” Current project in Kajola is installing over twenty doors for the indoors of the worship center. Hopefully, soon installing tile can be done as funds are received, along with purchasing plumbing fixtures & other necessities.

Spring Inductive Bible Studies Jude (Contend for the Faith) Precept upon Precept Bible study –

Problems within the church prompted Jude to preach a strong message about God’s judgment of sin. Dig deep into the details of Jude and discover how God ministered to His people at that time. Discover what truths you can apply to your personal life as you learn what Jude experienced in his relationship with God. And learn more about the day of judgment in this timely study.

Who: Anyone who has a desire to experience the Bible’s life-changing power and to personally engage with the Word through the inductive study method. (Coed)
