The Sunday Akinsola Foundation for Widows & Orphans ministry in Nigeria –

The teaching emphasis at both Kajola & Ogbomosho monthly meetings was from Psalm 19:4; 20:1-9 that the Lord would hear us in the day of trouble & rejoice in His salvation. From past experiences, September through December seem the most challenging time of the year when people seem more prone to accidents & sicknesses. The widows were encouraged to hold fast & follow the Lord to overcome fear of what could happen to them or their loved ones. In addition to teaching from the Scriptures, the meetings had a time of praise & worship & intense prayer. They were planning to have a time of fasting & prayer against sickness, accidents, poverty, & death.

They are expecting prayers answered the last four months of the year that were written down in January as requests to God.

In Kajola the ladies were given $2.50 along with bananas, cucumbers, carrots, & salt to take home & Ogbomosho fruit & rice.

The construction progress on the two-story chapel has drawn attention from neighbors in Kajola and positive interaction with the widows' fellowship. At times they ask to be included in the food given out to the ministry participants. The ladies are enjoying meeting in the large unfinished room even though tile hasn't been laid yet & construction is still ongoing. They aren't hindered kneeling on the bare concrete floor to pray. Some of the neighbors within hearing distance stop what they're doing to listen to the heartfelt prayers of intercession from the open upstairs windows.

The next phase of construction is purchasing doors & additional plastering when funds are received. The estimated cost for finishing the new worship center is $26,000. Once completed, the plan is to rent the large meeting room for weddings & events to provide a source of revenue for building upkeep & ministry. Please continue to pray for this ministry.
