The Sunday Akinsola Foundation for Widows & Orphans ministry in Nigeria –

Both the Ogbomoso & Kajola January monthly meetings emphasis including prayer was from Genesis 21:1-3 “The God of New Beginnings.” The special prayer program was to request a divine visitation from God. The ladies were asked to write three prayer requests as to what they wanted God to do for them this new year. After praying over all the requests, they took them outside & offered them up to the Lord. The flames represented that God accepted their prayers.

In Kajola they were given rice, spaghetti, spices, Maggi, salt, sodas, & bottled water. They had snacks there & also were given bus fare.

In the smaller location of Ogbomoso they took home cassava (a combination of Jiffy mix & mashed potatoes.) Also, they had snacks & sodas & bus fare.

The ladies were very excited to get handrails on the stairs & feel safer now. It would help to finish up the altar area to put tile down around it, & the rest of just the second floor for now. The next phase of project after that is purchasing plumbing fixtures, doors & additional plastering when funds are available. Not only will the widows’ ministry have worship & teaching, but other groups can rent the main hall (auditorium) that will bring in revenue.
