The Sunday Akinsola Foundation for Widows & Orphans in Nigeria –

Both locations of Kajola & Ogbomosho celebrated Easter. In Kajola the ladies had cookies & sodas for snacks. The smaller location of Ogbomosho cooked beans, rice, & chicken offsite before the meeting with large pots outside. The ladies enjoyed a meal & took some home for their children. At both locations they were given Ziploc bags to take home of flour, rice, instant pudding mix, & sodas. They were each blessed with an envelope for roundtrip bus fare - Kajola $3 & Ogbomosho $1.25.

The Bible teaching was from Matthew 28:1-20, "He is risen." The ladies were challenged with Jesus's commandment to go & spread the good news. Eight young widows attended for the first time Easter meeting in Kajola.

A tremendous blessing has been the improvement the government made on the road in front of the Widows Chapel where now the ladies can be driven to the front door rather than walk about a third of a mile. Also, deliveries can be made to the building. Early in the construction men had to carry bricks on their heads to the site.

Construction is now going on for the second floor & welding for the roof. The work is being done as funds are received.

Prayer points from Abiodun:

**For completion of the 2-story Widows Chapel.*
