The Sunday Akinsola Foundation for Widows & Orphans ministry in Nigeria –

For the May Mother’s Day meetings in both location the Bible reference was from Proverb 31:10-31 with teaching focus being a good mother & right attitude for the children. Also, being a God-fearing example wherever God puts us.

The focus of the June meetings in both locations was intercession against the rise of violence in the country. Specifically for the release of the 39 children & 7 teachers (including a principal) kidnapped by terrorists simultaneously from three schools in the Ogbomoso area in mid-May. (None from the Akinsola widows’ ministry) The scriptural reference was Psalm 50:15, ‘Call upon Me in the day of trouble; I shall rescue you, and you will honor Me.’ The government hasn’t been successful in rescuing them, & schools have been closed in fear it could happen again.

The ladies in Ogbomoso were given a bag of onions to take home & partial bus fare, & in Kajola a bag of rice.

Installation of wiring is next project for the new Kajola worship center. The ladies were very excited to see tile had been laid that covered the bare floor from recent meetings.

Summer Inductive Bible Studies – The Power of Prayer: A Collection on Prayer, Volume Three:

Why do our prayers sometimes feel so routine... so small?

The Bible gives us powerful examples of bold, faith-filled prayers that resulted in amazing things... but how many of us have truly experienced that kind of power in our own lives? How often have you seen the truly radical transformation that prayer can bring? In The Power of Prayer, you’ll be invited to discover the life-changing power of prayer for yourself. You’ll uncover the true source behind prayer: a power that can transform not only your life and but also the lives of those around you.

Who: Anyone who has a desire to experience the Bible's life-changing power and to personally engage with the Word through the inductive study method. (Coed)
