We extend our deepest sympathy to Andy Stockert and family in the unexpected passing of his wife, Anna, on May 2, 2026. Anna faithfully served Mt. Olivet Baptist Church in many leadership roles throughout her 43 years as an active and devoted member. She also led Precept Bible studies for 40 years, impacting countless lives through her teaching, encouragement, and unwavering faith. Anna was a shining example of the Scriptures she taught, consistently demonstrating faithfulness to God in both word and deed. Her influence on adults and children alike will be deeply remembered.

The Sunday Akinsola Foundation for Widows & Orphans ministry in Nigeria –

The April Ogbomoso meeting emphasis was Easter & resurrection. Also, a birthday celebration for one of the lady pastors turning 78 that has been with the ministry for about ten years. The ladies were given cooked rice & chicken to take home to their families. Also, spices & raw rice, bottled water & soda along with bus money.

The Kajola April meeting had Easter theme “He Is Risen.” The spiritual depth of the ladies in the Akinsola Foundation has deepened as they are determined to follow God & believe as they have seen their lives change & also their children’s. Each lady was given an envelope with $3 & those that rode bus a separate $1. A popular mixture of cooked blackeye peas & oatmeal was distributed in takeout containers along with bottled water & soda.

For an update on the worship center construction - Over twenty doors in worship center were installed & next week getting ready to start a tile floor project in the large meeting room.

Please pray for these widows & their children in both locations for their health & safety & that their relationship with the Lord will continue to deepen.
